Catarrh
IS a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

GOVERNOR HILL IN OHIO.

He Delivers a Stirring Speech in McKinley's District.

HARD WORDS FOR THE TARIFF.

The Famous Ohio Congressman Praised Personally, but Denounced Politically as Unworthy of a Single Complimentary Democratic Vote—Gov. Hill's Reception.

CANTON, O., Oct. 22.—Governor Hill, accompanied by J. S. Ewan and G. W. Blake, arrived here shortly after 6 o'clock last evening and were at once driven to the residence of Prosecutor Welty, where a reception was held in the governor's honor. The meeting the governor was to address was set for 8 o'clock and the hall was filled to its utmost capacity long before that time. Governor Hill did not reach the hall till about 9 o'clock, when the pent up enthusiasm of the crowd broke out in a tremendous round of applause. Mr. Welty acted as chairman and introduced Governor Hill as one of the most distinguished men in the country and the future president.

Governor Hill's Speech.

In his address Governor Hill prefaced his remarks by dwelling on the elections bill; the admission of the new states and called the McKinley an infamous tariff bill, the sum of all villanies.

He said the primary object of a tariff was to raise the necessary expenses of government, and no more should be raised. The place for the surplus was in the pockets of the masses. Republicans had reduced the surplus by unprecedented extravagant appropriations, redeeming their pledges and endangering a deficiency. He denied that the Democrats were ever committed to free trade, and asserted that it favored more than any other party ever organized protection to American labor. The tariff must be high enough to equalize wages between countries. He defended the Mills bill as furnishing adequate protection to every laborer and as subserving the best interests of the country.

Mr. McKinley Attacked Politically.

Barring the free list every article on which tariff reduced in that bill retained a sufficient duty to equalize wages. Democrats insist that little or no tariff should be placed on necessities or raw material for manufacture. He said it was hoped to popularize the McKinley bill by benefiting all a little, but government should have little to do with business interests. McKinley was the strongest protectionist ever in congress. No monopolist ever applied to him in vain. No wages had been raised since the bill passed, and the prices of necessities had risen. He acknowledged that merchants were taking advantage of the bill, but charged that the bill furnished the opportunity. He denounced the bill as framed in the interest of monopoly and to the injury all other classes.

Wages and the Tariff.

He denied that the tariff kept up wages in this country, and accounted for the higher wages here by the greater ability and intelligence of the people and through labor organizations. He denounced the unseating of Democratic representatives from the south; the admission of Wyoming and Idaho and the rejection of New Mexico, alleging that the latter was equal to both the former, and charging it all to partisanship. He said congress had been in session for months without rules. Speaker Reed, promising to act according to established parliamentary law, had refused to recognize Democrats desiring to speak and ignored the rights of the minority. He spoks of the elections bill in the most bitter language, saying it surpassed the tariff and all other issues as the great question of the hour, and appealing to the people to resent it.

The New York Census.

He denied that there are dishonest elections in the south, and said the colored people were happy and contented, and those not voting did not want to. He charged that the bill endangered the liberties of the people, and the Republican census officials were imposing false returns in New York to deprive the state of its just representatives in congress by keeping the population down.

A High Tribute to Mr. McKinley.

Speaking locally, he eulogized Mr. Warwick and paid a high tribute to Mr. McKinley, crediting him with ability, integrity and intellect personally, but denouncing him politically as a bitter partisan, unworthy of a single complimentary vote from Democrats, whom he long misrepresented in congress. He said no ruling of Speaker Reed's was so outrageous or partisan but that had McKinley's indorsement, or at least he had not the courage to oppose it.

McKinley had opposed every measure for the good of the country introduced since he had been in congress. He assured the Democrats of the district that they had no easy task, and said the whole country was watching the district, and every voter would be approached to forsake his alliance with the Democracy. Governor Hill this morning went to Wooster and thence to Millersburg Thursday and Masillon Friday.

Grant's Letter of Acceptance.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Mayor Grant's letter accepting the Tammany Hall nomination for re-election to the mayoralty has been given out. The mayor arraigns the Republican party for depriving the city of $300,000,000 which would have accrued if it had obtained the World's fair and for the loss of rapid transit legislation, all because this is a Democratic city. In defense of his administration he points to the decreased tax levy, the increased opening of streets, the improved pavements, the many new docks built (the latter insuring the retention of commerce that might have gone elsewhere), the work on new school buildings and the cutting of overhead wires and placing them underground. He points with pride to the police and fire departments, and to the Fusion party he replies that the running of the city by a political party has proved a success.

In Honor of Father Matthew.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—Under the auspices of the local branch of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Father Matthew, the apostle of temperance, was celebrated in the Academy of Music last night. Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, presided. Among those present were Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul; Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati, and Bishops Shanley, of North Dakota, and McGoldrick, of Duluth. Archbishop Ryan welcomed the visitors and Father Conaty, of Worcester, Mass., delivered an oration on the life of Father Matthew. Addresses were also delivered by Cardinal Gibbons and other dignitaries.

The Tariff Bill in Nebraska.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—A Herald special from Omaha, Neb., says: Since the passage of the McKinley bill the state has been given the benefit of wide publication of manufacturers' circulars, notifying dealers of increased prices, owing to increased tariff. This has had a very depressing effect on the Republican campaign. Congressman Dorsey sent the following telegram to M. S. Quay at Beaver Falls, Pa.: "Have manufacturers quote lower prices and deny that the McKinley bill raises prices. If this is not done it will cost thousands of votes in Nebraska." The telegram fell into the hands of a Democrat, who gave it out for publication.

"Baby Bunting's" Case on Appeal.

ALBANY, Oct. 22.—Miss Clara Campbell, the fair plaintiff in the famous "Baby Bunting" breach of promise case, listened with interest yesterday to the arguments before the court of appeals on the appeal of Charles Arbuckle from the judgment of $45,000 damages rendered for plaintiff by the courts below, and the arguments were largely a review of the amatory testimony taken in previous trials and an elaboration by the defendant's counsel of the exceptions there taken.

BISHOP LOUGHLIN'S JUBILEE.

The Great Brooklyn Clergyman Presented with a Purse of $21,000.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 18.—A reception in honor of the golden jubilee of the Right Rev. John Loughlin, bishop of Brooklyn, was held in the rink on Clermont green last evening. It is estimated that 8,000 people were present, including the Catholic clergy of Brooklyn and New York. Addresses were made by Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Corrigan, of New York; Bishop Loughlin and others. The bishop was presented with a purse of $21,000, contributed by the laity of his diocese, and a number of other valuable gifts.

BISHOP LOUGHLIN.

A Banquet to Bishop Loughlin.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 21.—The celebration of the golden jubilee, commemorating fifty years' services of Bishop Loughlin, was brought to a fitting conclusion last night by a banquet tendered by the laity and served in the assembly rooms of the Academy of Music. James McMahon, the chairman of the jubilee committee, presided. At his right sat the bishop and Mayor Chapin. On his left were Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Corrigan. Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati, Bishop Keane, of the Washington university, and other dignitaries of the church were present. Cardinal Gibbons responded to the toast "His Holiness Leo XIII," Bishop Loughlin to "Our Guest," Bishop Keane to "The United States," Archbishop Corrigan to "The Catholic Church of America" and Mayor Chapin to "The City of Brooklyn."

Over 22,000 Children Paraded.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—A parade of Catholic Sunday school children took place in Brooklyn Sunday in honor of Bishop Loughlin. Over 22,000 children turned out and marched past the Episcopal residence, where they were reviewed by the bishop, Cardinal Gibbons, the visiting bishops and clergy, and many prominent citizens. There were no bands of music, but the children sang hymns as they passed the bishop. They were two hours in passing the house.

Mrs. Birchall's Appeal.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Oct. 22.—The petition for commutation of Birchall's sentence has been coolly received by the public. Only about one in every fifty appealed to will attach their signatures to the document, although it has been greatly modified. The refusal of the public to indorse the request for clemency has greatly grieved Mrs. Birchall and her sister. Mrs. Birchall has just issued the following appeal on behalf of her husband:

COMMERCIAL HOTEL, Woodstock, Ont., Oct. 21.

To the People of Canada:

May I ask you to sign the accompanying petition for the commutation of my husband's sentence. I shall be indeed deeply and truly gratified if you will help me to save him from the terrible doom which awaits him. Yours truly,
FLORENCE BIRCHALL.

Birchall has completed his autobiography, which makes over 200 foolscap pages, and is about closing with New York publishers for the sale of it. His price is $2,000.

Silk Dyers on Strike.

PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 22.—A big strike has been inaugurated among the silk dyers and their helpers employed in the Wiedman Silk Dyeing company's works of this city, the largest establishment of its kind in Ameriza, due to the discharge of three of the dyers for trying to form a union among the men. Three hundred are employed in the works at Riverside, and of this number only forty remained at work. A few days ago it was discovered by Jacob Weidman, president of the company, that there was a movement on foot among some of the men to form a labor union. Monday Mr. Weidman discovered the originators of the scheme and discharged them. The other workmen resolved to stand by the discharged employes, and made a demand that they be reinstated. This was refused, and Mr. Weidman told the men delegated to approach him that his works shall never be dominated by a labor union.

Nine Sailors Drowned.

PORT HURON, Mich., Oct. 21.—The propeller Annie Young was burned and sunk about ten miles north of here Monday and nine lives were lost. The following is a list of the dead men as obtained from Capt. Miller:

J. Crosby, fireman, of St. Catherines, Ont.
J. Donnelly, lookout, of Erie, Pa.
J. Gallagher, watchman, of Prescott, Ont.
George McManus, deckhand, of Port Huron.
Charles Reardon, wheelman, of Prescott, Ont.
Three deckhands, names and residences unknown.

Capt. Mooney Defeated Daly.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Oct. 22.—The pigeon shooting match between Phillip Daly, Jr., of the Central Gun club, of Long Branch, and Capt. Mooney, of London, England, attracted a large crowd of sporting men to Hollywood. Mooney outshot Daly from the start and won the match by a score of 78 to 68. The shoot was at 100 birds each, 21 yards boundary.

In the Clouds.

Professor Moller, of Carlsruhe, has made some interesting observations on clouds. The highest clouds, cirrus and cirro-stratus, rise on an average to a height of nearly 30,000 feet. The middle clouds keep at from 10,000 feet to 23,000 feet in height, while the lower clouds reach to between 3,000 feet and 7,000 feet. The cumulus clouds float with their lower surface at a height of from 4,000 to 5,000 feet, while their summits rise to 16,000 feet. The tops of the Alps are often hidden by clouds of the third class, but the bottoms of the clouds of the second class, and especially of the thunder clouds, often enfold them.

The vertical dimension of a cloud observed by Professor Moller on the Netleberg was over 1,200 feet. He stepped out of it at a height of about 2,700 feet, and high above the mountain floated clouds of the middle class, while veils of mist lay in the ravines and clefts. The upper clouds were growing thicker, while the lower ones were dissolving, and soon it began to rain and snow.—Public Opinion.

He has patented thirty important and successful inventions.

Brief Mention of Matters Which Everybody Should Know About—A Week's Accidents and Crimes Accurately and Concisely Chronicled.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—Recent developments in the affairs of the Bank of America show that the unfortunate depositors of that institution have been so thoroughly robbed of their money that it is unlikely that they will receive as much as ten cents on the dollar in payment of their claims. District Attorney Graham, who has just completed his investigation into the affairs of the bank, declines to talk about the prosecution of the bank's officials at the present time.

Mr. Albert Foster is appointed purchasing agent; Mr. John Walker, Jr., is appointed transfer clerk, and Mr. Charles H. Quarles is appointed auditor of passenger traffic, vice Mr. Edward Mahler, who has been transferred to another department.

Killed by a Pittston Policeman.

PITTSTON, Pa., Oct. 18.—John W. Davis, a retired hotel keeper of this place, was shot dead last evening by William Weathers, a police officer, who also received injuries which may prove fatal. Davis, who was intoxicated, became involved in a fight in front of the Eagle hotel. Weathers attempted to arrest Davis, but the latter resisted so stoutly that another officer had to be called. Davis broke away from both officers and drawing a "black jack" from his pocket, struck Weathers several terrific blows, felling him to the ground.

As Weathers lay prostrate he drew his revolver and fired four shots at Davis, two of which took effect, and Davis dropped. Both men were carried to the corridor of the hotel, where Davis died in a few minutes. Physicians think that Weathers also will die. Both men are well known here, and the excitement is intense.

Both were buried in the debris for at least ten minutes, and were terribly scalded. The accident is said to be due to a green hand giving the wrong signal.

Guilty of Murder in the First Degree.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 21.—The jury in the Rudert murder trial returned a verdict Sunday, finding Killian guilty of murder in the first degree. The jury reached a verdict late Saturday night. The court officials could not be brought together, however, until Sunday. This is the second time in the history of Allegheny county of a verdict of murder in the first degree being returned on Sunday. Killian stands convicted of the killing of Mrs. Rudert, the wife of a jeweler, at Tarrenturn, Pa., on the night of Dec. 23, 1889. Three men robbed a jewelry store, and while protecting the property of her husband Mrs. Rudert was shot in the head and killed. The two supposed principals in the affair, Peter Griffin and Thomas Conroy, have not been arrested.

The Tramp Had $1,300.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—Edward Bridge, who had the appearance of a tramp, was arrested in a Catholic church here while asleep. Thirteen hundred dollars in English gold and bank notes was found in his possession. He told the British consul that he came to this country with the money to invest it in a farm. He had a morbid fear of loosing the money and so dressed roughly, hoping thus to deceive people as to his real financial condition. He had become completely worn out because of his anxiety and watchfulness, and when he went into the church he was soon overcome by sleep. The consul placed his money in a bank.

He had served eighteen months of a fifteen year sentence when he was released on a "ticket of leave."

Don't Show Your Collar Button.

It is desirable that a cravat or four-in-hand should be held firmly up against the tabs of a collar. The collar button never should be seen. With a cravat this may be accomplished by drawing the first knot firm. With a four-in-hand it may be accomplished by first tying a firm simple knot before making the four-in-hand movement.—Clothier and Furnisher.

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1890.

As you go to the election call on your neighbor and take him along.

Make your arrangements to go to the election; and don't chop wood, thresh buckwheat or go a fishing.

You have had your fun at the Fair, now do your work at the election.

Stuff your pockets with Pattison tickets and see that they are all voted before seven o'clock.

A vote for Delamater is an endorsement of bribery. A vote for Pattison is an approval of honest government.

Don't forget election day—give the whole of it to the party and the redemption of the state from the rule of corrupt men.

Go early and stay late. Make a full day and the victory will rejoice you more, because you had a hand in bringing it about. Work will tell—a full vote is a victory.

One week from next Tuesday will be election. Let every democrat make an effort from this time until the close of the polls to see that every democratic vote is cast.

There are over five thousand democratic votes in this county. The entire vote of the democratic party in this county is near. Let every democrat see to it that every vote is cast this year.

Wake Up!

And see that Columbia County gives Pattison at least 2500 majority. If we are beaten it is our own fault and want of activity at the polls. Our party is solidly for our excellent candidate; many republicans will not vote to support Quay and his methods. Let us give to the state a splendid and honest administration. The republicans desire it, and will help us by their inaction. See that every democrat is early at the polls, and is all day there and hard at work for Pattison.

"Blocks of Five."

They count very rapidly. Quay and Dudley understood that. In the thirty voting districts of Columbia county, if five votes remain at home in each we lose 150 votes, and in the state that would count us say 30,000. Don't leave one man at home, a full vote is a victory. Save the state from the disgrace of Quay and Delamater. Go in "Blocks of Five" for Pattison and Reform.

Wanted 5000 Men Wanted,

To go to the polls on election day, in Columbia County, and vote for Pattison for Governor. You, who are now reading this paragraph, are wanted as one of the number. Remember that a vote don't count unless it is in the ballot box. Be sure that yours gets in all right and in good time in the morning, and then see that your neighbor is equally vigilant. If he is not on hand by noon, go for him. If you have a horse and wagon take it, and pick up the old men as you go along. Don't forget that a full vote is a democratic victory.

DELAMATER DECLINES.

On Friday, October 24th, both Pattison and Delamater will speak at Carlisle. The democratic chairman of Cumberland county, thought it would be a nice thing to have both candidates speak in joint debate. He therefore challenged the republican chairman to have Delamater meet Pattison. The republican chairman, not knowing how to answer, submitted it to the State Chairman, Mr. Andrews. He answered by stating that Delamater declined to met Pattison. Next week both candidates will be in Philadelphia, and State Chairman Kerr will again challenge Delamater to meet Pattison in debate; but since he declined to met him in Carlisle we can state that he will again decline.

PATTISON AT BLOOMSBURG.

Ex-Governor Pattison and Capt. W. H. Barclay, accompanied by James M. Beck, Jno. J. Malony, Maurice F. Wilbere, M Kearnan, and vice-chairman E. P. Kisner arrived at Bloomsburg at 12;20 last Friday. A throng of people that filled every available space at the depot awaited the gubernatorial party's arrival. The reception committee consisted of County Chairman J. R. Townsend, Hon. E. R. Ikler Hon. C. R. Buckalew, Col. J. G. Freeze and C. G. Barkley, Esq. When Pattison made his appearance cheer after cheer rent the air. He was greeted by the reception committee who escorted him through the ladies waiting room to the north side of the depot, where carriages were awaiting. After a few moments time of hand shaking, the band played a familiar air, when the party started in the direction of the fair grounds escorted by a large delegation of democrats. At the main entrance gate the party were greeted by the marshal F. P. Hagenbauch, which was the occasion of another outburst of applause. At the grand stand they were greeted by the reception committee, consisting of P. A. Evans, M. G. Hughes, and Samuel Camp. When the party arrived at the grand stand, several thousand people had gathered to hear the speeches. It was difficult to determine from what point the speech should be made so that the multitude could hear, it was finally determined that an open carriage in the midst of the people should be used. From this point Hon. C. R. Buckalew introduced Mr. Pattison, which was the occasion of another outburst of applause. The ex-Governor introduced his speech by saying that for several weeks past he had been speaking from a railway car but now he would speak from a four wheeled buggy. He cited the great growth and development of the Country and asked for a comparison of our own agricultural society with that of ten years ago. He eulogized popular government and said our men in higher offices should be selected from among the common people those identified with the wants and needs of the masses. Thomas Jefferson was the inventor of the side hill p'ow while Henery Clay was never so well satisfied as when walking about the farm watching the growth. This is a popular government. The people are the Supreme power and should well know the men to whom they were about to entrust this supreme power. Under our principles of government all interest should be reflected in the government. Yet we find in the State, organizations for the protection of farmers, miners and other seperate classes. There never was a time in Pennsylvania when popular government was in more danger. Within the past few years there has grown up bossism, unpopular, unrepublican, a selfish one man power, entirely hostile to popular government. To illustrate, in 1884 I had occasion to investigate the revenue, system of Pennsylvania. Under this system all property should be equally taxed. I found by the records that the real estate value was $160,000,000 and the personal property $160,000,000. The tax raised $38,000,000. If equalized, the farmers would pay $19,000,000, but it was disclosed that the farmers pay $30,000,000; while personal property pays $8,000,000. A bill was introduced in 1884, but it was killed in the committee room, although every one admitted that it was fair. The feeling grew strong between 1885 and 1887 when a more moderate bill, although in the same direction, was introduced and passed, but failed to receive the signature of the Senate's presiding officer, and was lost. In 1888-9 another bill was introduced, but referred to a committee and never heard of. Had this been a properly constituted popular government the legislation would have been passed in 1885, and the farmers relieved. One of the great issues of this contest is this tax question. The men who obstructed this legislation will take the verdict as an approval or disapproval, and if an approval will continue the course of obstruction and equalization of taxation will not come for a generation." The vast crowd listened attentively to his words and frequently interrupted him with hearty applause. At the conclusion of his speech the races were called. Following the first race, Capt W. H. Barclay, candidate for Secretary of Internal affairs, was introduced and made a short address. He was interrupted by two republicans, who lacked good sense, and could not control their beastly nature long enough to hear the short address, but cried "Go on with the races!" "To h——l with the democrats." Such characters should be denounced by all good people of all parties.

After the address of Ex-Governor Pattison, he was escorted to the main Exhibition building by chairman Townsend. Hon C. R. Buckalew and E. M. Tewksbury. The governor expressed great surprise and pleasure at the vast exhibition and the great attendance. He was introduced to a number of democrats and republicans.

The party left the fair grounds at about 3 o'clock and proceeded to the Exchange Hotel where a reception was held. After partaking of dinner the reception committee and a large delegation from Montour County including county chairman Edmonson escorted the party to the D. L. & W. depot where an immense crowd had gathered to await the coming of Ex-Governor Pattison. Amid cheers the train left for Danville where an evening meeting was held.

BRIBERY.

We clip the following from a late Philadelphia paper.

"What do you know, Mr. Mapes, of the reports that Senator Quay proposes to unload a large amount of money into Pennsylvania in the interest of Mr. Delamater?"

"We know that his own henchmen boast of it loudly: we know that money is already flowing freely in every portion of the State, that free trains are run to meetings; that men are employed to make special canvass of Democratic workingmen in the districts in each election precinct, and that they hope to play the old 'blocks of five' game with these workingmen, putting money enough into the hands of trusty agents in each precinct to see that none of them get away. We have this from a circular sent out by one of the County Chairmen, which indicates they are mailed. We have no doubt that the circulars have been sent out to all parts of the State."

The above is no doubt correct in every particular. He has an agent in Columbia County and we ask you to spot him, and if the facts are clear, arrest him. Decent Republicans resent the corrupting course of Quay as freely as the Democrats do, and are as anxious to destroy the system. Every man, of any and all parties, who is in favor of pure politics and honest administration of public affairs is for Pattison. Democrats, Republicans and Prohibitionists make common cause.

The Republican Organ of Bucks County declares for Pattison

The Doylestown Intelligencer in its issue of October 15th comes out squarely against the republican candidate. The Intelligencer is the oldest and most widely circulated weekly newspaper in the state. It was established in 1807 and has always defended the republican party. The following is the editorial in full

In April Ex-Senator Emery made his now celebrated warning to the Republican party of the State that Mr. Delamater was not a fit man to be nominated for Governor. Mr. Emery made charges against Mr. Delamater, which the latter allowed to stand until August—his course indicating that he could not meet the charges as innocent men would naturally meet such accusations, and that he thought the Republican party was entitled to no special consideration in the matter. In August, however, Mr. Delamater made a public and general denial of what Mr. Emery had said. In September Mr. Emery presented details in support of his allegations of corruption of voters, perjary and receiving money in return for official action. He presented witnesses under indefinite names, a letter from Ex-Speaker Rutan, and allegations as to Mr. Delamater's defeat of a Republican nominee, in his own county, for personal and pecuniary reasons.

These charges Mr. Delamater next denied, in Bucks county and elsewhere. Following the denial comes an identification of the famous X Y. and Z. witnesses. They are no myths. Two of them served Crawford county in the State Legislature, and their identity is now well established, and since this their statements have not been called in question. Mr. Delamater in his speech at Bradford discredits Mr. Rutan, and the latter thereupon says he has letters written by Delamater himself proving charges which he (Rutan) makes next is the statement of Morris the wounded soldier candidate for Treasurer of Crawford county, who Delamater defeated. His letters in his own behalf reiterates what Mr. Emery said as to this particular incident, and is qualified to as true and complete.

Scrofula

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or goitre, humor in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness, yield to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every trace of impurity from the blood and builds up the weakened system.

"My little daughter's life was saved, as we believe, by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she was six months old she had 7 running scrofula sores. One physician advised the amputation of one of her fingers, to which we refused assent. When we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla, a marked improvement was noticed and by a continued use of it her recovery was complete. And she is now, being seven years old, strong and healthy." B. C. JONES, Alna, Lincoln County, Me.

These are not ordinary campaign objections. They are not partisan matters in any sense. They do not proceed from Democratic sources. They are a reiteration of charges against the intergrity of Mr. Delamater. They come almost exclusively from Republican sources. They corroborate and justify Mr. Emery's allegations. Much as we regret to indorse a Democratic candidate, and bad as we well know the Democratic policy and practice to be in public affairs, intelligent, thinking, self-respecting Republicans cannot indorse, and be true to Republican principles, a man with such a record as Delamater's. Republicanism cannot condone such charges as these. The further we go along the worse the situation grows. They who sow the wind must expect to reap the whirlwind. Ignoring what was requested as to fair play and the will of the party was bad enough, but the unmet charges affecting character and honor are infinitely worse. Under the circumstances, daily growing stronger, it is incomprehensible how an honest, thinking citizen can justify to himself a participation in supporting Mr. Delamater,

New Tariff Literature.

For practical arguments on the tariff question nowadays consult business circulars and the newspaper advertising of business houses. For example, it is the contention of the friends of a protective tariff that duties on imports are not paid by the consumers in the United States. But the great dry goods house of Strawbridge & Clothier announces in their advertisement October 17 that

The new Tariff law which went into effect October 6 will, of course, result in an advance of prices on foreign goods of almost all descriptions.

Here follows a very compact tariff argument which we find in the advertisement of Mr. E. O. Thompson, a Chestnut street dealer in clothing:

We have now in stock this season's importations, and we offer them at old Tariff prices. An illustration of facts will induce quick demands for our present stock of 500 coats.

COMPARISONS AND REFLECTIONS:

Old duty 35 per cent.....40 c. lb
New duty 60 per cent.....49½c. lb.

Increase 25 per cent.....09½c. lb.

The old was a War Tariff for our Country. The new is a war Tariff against the People.

This is an exquisite exhibit to a man who objects to High Taxation and High Prices. Soon, however, a free people will demand the right to make, sell and buy all lawful goods without party prohibition.

The tariff writers and orators may now rest their pens and tongues. The business men of the country have come to the front with arguments and instances that strike home.

Buy a course ticket to the Normal School Lecture course. Every lecture will be a treat. There is no inferior talent sandwiched in among the good. Every lecturer ranks among the very best on the European platform. If the results do not prove the truth of this assertion, money will be refunded.

The Park sisters stand equally high in the estimation of musicians. Tickets can be had at Dentler's shoe store. Only $1.50 for the entire course.

Sometimes the lamp wick will obstinately refuse to be turned up in an orderly manner. It will seem firmly wedged at one side, while the other will run up in a point, causing weariness and vexation of spirit. To overcome this depravity take a new wick, draw out a single thread near the selvage, and the wick will be found tractable when introduced into the burner. The cogs will take it up properly, and it will appear in good form and give an even flame when lighted.

I've been a sufferer from rheumatism for years and have been unable to obtain any relief at all. Salvation Oil gave me entire relief and I heartily recommend it. HENRY WINKEL, Baltimore, Md.

The Star Lecture Course was inaugurated Monday evening by the Philharmonic Club of New York City. All in attendance were delighted with the music. The next on the course is "Chalk Talk" by W. M. The article in this week's Republican upon the reception of ExGovernor Pattison, is maliciously false or written in ignorance. The party did not arrive at 12.05 as therein stated, as the train was not due until 12.18. Instead of a "few straggling admirers," there were about six hundred at the depot. The party went direct to the Fair grounds and did not dine until about three o'clock. The party reached the grand stand before one o'clock, and no races were called as not a single horse was on the track when they arrived.

There was a meeting of the Columbia County Medical Society at Exchange Hotel Tuesday. After dining, they devoted the afternoon to general discussion. Dr. Redeker read an article on the new remedy for heart failure called "Trinatrine." Dr. Reber the secretary distributed several copies of the transactions of the State Medical Society. The next meeting of the society will be held three months from this date at Catawissa, when Dr. L B. Kline will read a paper on the subject of "Angina pectoris."

In washing woolen blankets, to avoid shrinkage, do not have the different waters of widely different degrees of heat, and do not apply soap directly to them. The best way is to dissolve two tablespoonsful of borax in hot water, and add the solution to a tub half full of very hot water; put in the blankets and let them remain one hour, stirring often and rubbing with the hands, but never on a washboard. Squeeze them out of this suds, prepare another water of the same temperature, containing but one tablespoonful of borax, and enough fine white soap to make a nice suds; immerse the blankets and repeat the same process of cleaning as at first. Afterward rinse through two clean waters of the same temperature as the others and dry.

William Thayer, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Elwell, of Towanda, and grandson of Judge Elwell and William Neal of this town, died at his home on Friday, October 17th at 8 o'clock in the evening, after an illness of nearly four weeks. The bereaved friends have the consolation of knowing that, though but sixteen years of age, he had won the friendship and esteem of a large portion of the community. He was a manly boy, with affable manners, and noble instincts, popular with his teachers, his fellow-students, and all his associates. He was a communicant of the Protestant Episcopal church, and in all his relations his duties were always earnestly and conscientiously performed. He had no fear of death, and he met the great destroyer like a hero.

William was a loving son and brother and his loss is a terrible blow. The sympathy for the parents and sister was shown by the large concourse of people that filed Christ church, Towanda, at the funeral services last Tuesday morning at 10:30. There were beautiful floral offerings from his schoolmates, his Sunday school class, and many loving friends. His desk in the High School was draped, and resolutions of condolence were passed by the High school Lyceum. Rev. W. E. Wright of Elmira, conducted the funeral services in a most impressive manner. Among the friends who were present from this place were Mr. and Mrs. William Neal, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Neal, Judge and Mrs. Elwell, C. W. Neal and daughter Grace, N. U. Funk and Geo. E Elwell.

Attempted Robbery.

There was an attempt to burglarize the house of Robt. R. Little, Esq., last Wednesday evening. In the afternoon a number of ladies had gathered there to get turkeys ready for the dinner of the Baptist Church at the Fair Grounds. About 40 turkeys were cleaned and ready for the next day's dinner, Mr. Robert Little was not at home at the time; but about 11 o'clock his father heard a noise, and thought some one called "Mr. Little." He arose and searched the house and surroundings, supposing that his workman who had charge of his cattle at the fair grounds was calling him. While searching the house his son returned, and the two walked to the fair grounds to see if anything was wrong, but they found the cattle all right. They returned to their beds. The next morning, it was discovered that the iron grating of the cellar windows had been torn out, and the thieves were just about removing the window sash when disturbed. Mr. Little is at loss to know what awakened him; whether some one passing noticed the thieves and called, or whether he was aroused by some dream. It was fortunate he was awakened, or the church dinner would have been a failure the next day.

$3,000 Against the Borough.

A lawsuit that is of interest to every borough in the State has just been decided in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania against the town of Shamokin. In 1886 Mrs. Robinson of Shamokin wanted to put down a pavement and obtained the grade from the Council. When her pavement was laid it proved to be 9 inches higher than her neighbor's, John Weir. Mr. Weir was notified by the Council to raise his pavement. He paid no attention to the notice, and the Council left the matter rest. In May, a few weeks after Weir was notified, Mrs. May Reddy came walking along the pavement of Mrs. Robison, and when she came to the drop of nine inches, fell and broke her arm. Two suits were brought by the husband, one for injuries his wife sustained and the other for loss of services while the arm was getting well. The suit was tried in March. 1890, before Judge Rockefeller of Sunbury, and a verdict rendered for the complainant. The case was carried to the Supreme Court, and the verdict sustained. Our Councilmen should compel all people to put their pavements to a grade. We are told that some parties have refused to raise their pavements.

COLUMBIA COUNTY FAIR.

The thirty-sixth annual fair of the Columbia County Agricultural Society was decidedly the best in attendance and exhibits in the history of the Association. The pleasant weather of Wednesday gave cheer to the exhibitors and there was a grand rush for space in the main building. Every available space was filled. The ladies did their utmost to make the exhibits a success, and they did succeed in it as was shown by the great variety of work in every conceivable shape that imagination could conceive and the skill of the needle could form. We could not attempt to enumerate them but must express it by saying they were legion, or in the words of a stranger in attendance, "it was the greatest fair we ever seen." The ladies of the Episcopal church had numerous articles, such as rugs, comforts, counterpanes, quilts, stockings, &c., articles which they made for sale, and had a lady in attendance taking orders for the same.

The Bloomsburg Silk Mill had a nice exhibit which attracted much attention—the first piece of silk made at the mill and consequently the first ever made in Bloomsburg—also the cocoon, various kinds of raw silk, including wild silk, and many colors of silk thread.

Clark & Son exhibited ladies coats, handkerchiefs, table lamps and fancy articles, also the $19 50 Demorest Sewing Machine.

Columbia county fair could not well be held without the presence of J. Saltzer, with his fine musical instruments. Upon this occassion he had two booths, in the one were the Estey pipe and parlor organs, and the Estey pianos, in circassian walnut, mahogany and antique oak, also the Starr piano in rosewood. He had fine displays of samples done on the celebrated White Sewing Machine, and exhibited the best three-drawer $19.50 sewing machine made. In booth No. 2, was found the Domestic Sewing Machine, with fine samples, a 7 octave piano-Case organ, a 6-octave ¾ oak United States organ, and a Miller organ with fancy mirror.

Mrs. S. M. Dougherty portrait artist of Catawissa had a fine exhibit of her work.

A. G. Nesbit exhibited photographs and life size crayon work.

McKillip Bros.' display of photographs and fine crayon work attracted much attention.

Magee & Co. of the Bloomsburg Carpet Mill had samples of their manufacture of fine ingrain carpets.

The display of vegetables was enormous, the selections fine, could not be better anywhere.

A marked improvement was made in the space for bread, butter, pastry and cakes. A large glass frame was made which kept those goods free from dust.

The display of apples, quinces, grapes and dried fruits were all of the best.

W. J. Corell & Co., furniture dealers exhibited parlor suits, library chairs, antique oak bed room suits.

Baker & McBride, had a fine bed room suit finished in natural wood, parlor suits, easy rockers, antique oak bed room suit and book case.

Buggies were exhibited by Sloan & Bro., S. A. Wilson of Bloomsburg, and B. W. Drake of Light Street.

Stoves and tinware were exhibited by Eshleman & Wolf, W. F. Hartman and L. E. Wherry.

L. T. Sharpless made a novel exhibit, of canned goods, butters, jellies and choice fruits.

W. R Kocher & Co. had a mammoth piece of lump coal in order to advertise their coal yard.

C. Mears & Son had one of their celebrated Perfect Washers and dog power attached, also one of the Propeller churns—a new invention, operated upon new principles for a churn, and is the easiest and best operated churn made.

C. S. Waltz of Catawissa, successor to Truckenmiller, had a genuine store of Japanese goods, and took many orders during the fair.

C. S. Furman had a fine exhibit of his harness, robes, blankets and whips.

Among the exhibitors of agricultural implements were White & Conner of Orangeville, with their two-horse tread power thresher and cleaner, their fodder cutter and grinder, Steel Spring tooth harrow and Empire grain and fertilizer drill. J. M. Hulshizer of Lightstreet, also exhibited his tread power and threshing machines.

H. V. White & Co. exhibited one and two-horse wagons, buckboard and buggies; Superior drill, Eureka and Bradley mowers, Hudson cultivators, Centre Hall corn planter, Eureka and Hench & Dromgold spring tooth harrow, Wiard plows, Wiard hayrake, Root corn sheller, and Mabi lawn mower.

Eshleman & Wolf had a mower and binder and the Pittsburg pumps.

Over one hundred compartments in the poultry shed were filled with chickens, geese, turkeys, pigeons and guineas. There were also several exhibits of rabbits, as also dogs.

E. H. Little Esq. of Bloomsburg had six head of Holstein-Friesian cattle which were raised on his stock farm near Light street.

A. S. Shimer, of Reddington, Northampton county, had sixteen head including Ayershire, Guernsy, Swiss and Holstein.

Hervey W. Hess, of Mifflinville, had thirteen head of Jersey cattle, registered, from his stock farm. They were as fine a lot of cattle as we ever saw.

G. B. McHenry of Rohrsburg had a large Holstein bull. This was offered for sale.

The separate stalls for cattle were all taken and contained good stock of graded Durham, Jersey and Ayershire cattle.

The exhibit of sheep and hogs was larger than for many years past.

H. P. Lewis, of Brady, Indiana county, Pa., who has been in attendance for the past three years, was again selected as the special judge for the stock.

There were over 40,000 people in attendance during the four days, which is several thousand more than any previous year.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

A Museum of Art.

A large jewelry establishment, such as Bailey, Banks & Biddle's, Chestnut and 12th Streets, Philadelphia, is a perfect museum of art. It is a rare one, too. Some of the finest artists and sculptors who have lived gave their best efforts to the designing of jewelry. It remained, however, for the present generation to discover that a complete jewelry store should have gems of household as well as articles of personal ornamentation. This idea seems to be the one that has prompted this firm to have in stock master-pieces of European potteries, exquisite bits of sculpture in marble and bronze, in addition to beautiful examples of the gold and silversmith's art.

MISS OLOF KRARER.

WHO SHE IS, AND WHERE SHE CAME FROM.

The most wonderful curiosity known to the platform is the little Esquimaux lady, Miss Olof Krarer, who is only 40 inches in height, 31 years of age, and weighs 120 pounds. She has delivered over 200 lectures in two seasons, and in the last five years has become master of the English language, so that she is able to entertain for a full evening the most critical and exacting audiences. She has repeated her lecture no less than from three to six times in several towns and cities, with increasing interest on each occasion.

Miss Krarer was born and lived in her native country, Greenland, until 15 years of age, when she left home with a party of shipwrecked sailors, and after traveling one thousand miles over frozen seas at last reached Iceland. She remained in Iceland about ten years, when she left there with her father and finally reached Manitoba. Many friends becoming greatly interested in her welfare induced her to study the English language, which she has done to great advantage during the past six years, and now speaks it fluently.

The story of her life, as she tells it, is more thrilling than any fairy tale. She holds her audience as if spell-bound from first to last. During a portion of the evening she will dress in her native costume, and at the close of the lecture she will answer any questions that members of the audience may choose to ask. Miss Krarer comes as a revelation, a walking wonder and the greatest curiosity of the nineteenth century. No one should fail to hear her. She will probably spend next season lecturing in Europe.

She will lecture next Monday evening at 8 p. m. at the Normal school.

East Benton.

Mrs. Brunston, near Three Corner Lake, Lehman township, Luzerne Co., and daughter of Amos Dresher of Fishingcreek twp., came to visit her friends last Saturday.

We met the woman near Cambra who inquired of us concerning the recent cyclone and showing us a grain bag that was found on their place, which was marked on one side "Knelly & Pealer," and on the other "W. Hulme." This bag was carried by the storm from the demolished barn of Hilbert Hulme st Fishingcreek, a distance of over twenty-five miles. Another like incident is the finding of Bruce Ash and wife's marriage certificate in a buckwheat field in Dallas township, which was carried from their demolished house in Benton township, also a distance of twenty miles or more.

Judge Krickbaum and wife attended the funeral of her sister in Butler township last Friday.

Redman Drum, of Standsbury, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Krickbaum, last week.

Phil Morgan and brother attended the fair at Benton. These young men are from Plymouth and nephews of Mrs. Judge Krickbaum.

Pensions! Veterans!!

The Disability Pension Bill.

Act of June 27, 1890, grants pensions to all ex-soldiers and sailors who served 90 days or more in the Army or Navy during the rebellion, and were honorably discharged, and who are now suffering from any permanent, mental or physical disability contracted since the war or during the war whether from disease, injuries or effects of old age, at the rate of from $6 to $12 per month, according to the degree of his disability for the performance of labor requiring the exertion of physical strength; provided the disability is not due to vicious habits. This pension is not restricted to the veterans who have to make their living by hard labor, but is equally due to professional men or clerks, provided they have an existing disability which would prevent the continuous exercise of the physical strength of an able-bodied man.

Those who have applied under the general laws and who are unable to prove up the pending claim can apply for and secure this pension and then continue the prosecution of the former claim and secure their arrears.

If you are now drawing a small pension, say $3 or $4 per month, you can take this pension instead, and if you have an application on file for increase or additional pension for new disabilities you can continue the prosecution of such claims while drawing the new pension, or you can file an original claim for a disability contracted in the service while drawing pension under this new act.

Widows, children, and dependent mothers and fathers are entitled under this act and can suspend the prosecution of any pending claim, and take this pension, and afterwards complete the prior claim and get arrears.

Having been duly appointed an Agent according to the rules and regulations of the Department of the Interior in the prosecution of such claims and having had success in a number of cases I am always prepared to give information and assist claimants, and will assure them success if they are able to establish the facts as required by law.

Those interested should call soon and claim their reward.

W. H. BROOKE & CO.

One of our large publishing houses is now engaged in bringing out a new reprint of the Great Brittanica Encyclopedia, which in many respects is more desirable and better adapted to popular use than any previous edition. It is an exact reproduction, page for page, of the Great Edinburg Ninth Edition recently completed, except that the maps are later, being corrected and brought up to date, and a few articles of special interest to Americans have been rewritten by American authors of highest reputation. Contains all the illustrations, maps, plates, indexes and sub-indexes of the latest edition.

The print is large and clear. The Binding is elegant in appearance and in point of durability is superior to any edition, being sewed precisely the same as the 'Oxford Teachers' Bible,' having a flexible spring back which permits the book to remain perfectly flat when opened.

The cost of the original edition is $8 per volumue. The Scribner Edition is $5 per volume. This edition is published at the remarkable low rate of $3 per volume. We believe, on inspection, you will admit it is the finest volume you have ever seen at the price.

The sale of this new edition has been placed with us and we are authorized to offer 30 sets at the price of $1.50 per volume. After these are sold the price will be advanced.

But you must decide quickly, and therefore we go one step farther than the publishers, and make a special and still more liberal offer. In order that you may see for yourself this wonderful bargain, and thoroughly examine its merits, both of contents and manufacture, we make you the following proposition: We will furnish Volume I for 60 cents—a fraction of actual cost, with the understanding that you will give it a full and critical examination, with a view to purchase of the complete set. Taking Vol. I places you under no obligation to take another volume—our only desire is to acquaint you with our wonderful offer.

We expect to be able to deliver four volumes per month, and to complete the delivery in November. This offer will give you a complete set of Encyclopædia Brittanica in Twenty-Five Volumes elegantly bound for $36.60, the greatest bargain ever offered. To secure it the order must be given now.

We would be pleased to have you call at our store and examine the boods.

Yours truly,

HORNED TOADS AS PETS.

THE REPULSIVE REPTILES ARE VERY POPULAR IN THE WEST.

They Can Be Tamed and Afford Much Amusement—They Are Real Interesting Creatures—Remarks by a Dealer Who Sells Many of Them Annually.

"Of all the curious objects for pets," said the curio man, "I think that the horned toad will take the palm."

"Are they popular as domestic animals?" asked the one to whom this remark was offered.

"I guess you'd think so if you knew how many we sell in the course of the year, to say nothing of all those that are caught on the spot and carried home in triumph by those who fancy such things."

"Who does?" asked the reporter.

"Well, children are very fond of them. They seem to think that it's no end of fun to see them run around, eat flies, and burrow themselves deep in the sand."

"How are they treated when in captivity?"

"Pretty much as we treat them, I suppose. You can see for yourself," said the curio man, leading the way to one side of his crowded store, where in a great, round, deep glass tank were half a dozen or more of the funny little fellows sprawled out upon their sandy domain. One seemed asleep, the others were moving with more or less degree of animation.

One was trying to mount an elevation furnished by the back of a comrade, and having attained that height the rogue balanced himself upon his hind legs and tried to climb up the glassy sides of the tank. But in this he was not successful, and after slipping back a most discouraging number of times he gave it up as a bad job. Two others seemed to be assuming a belligerent attitude, to which the owner at once called the attention of his visitor.

THEY ARE QUEER PETS.

"Do you see that?" said he. "Some of those fellows are the greatest fighters imaginable. They take a dislike to each other, and never rest until they have fought it out to the death. The old one there is especially vicious.

"These horned toads are to be found in sandy wastes. I have heard of their being caught out at the Mission, but of that I can't speak positively. These here came from Arizona, although we have received them from much nearer home.

"At Redlands the boys catch ever so many, and the Chinese eat them. They just skin off that coat of mail and eat the inside. Besides, they highly prize the oil, which is contained in a little pouch somewhere within the anatomy of a horned toad.

"The toads are shipped to us by express in boxes, sometimes as many as twenty or more in the same box, and by the time they are released from their confinement they are all wound together, until they look like a writhing, animated mass of wriggling legs and squirming tails.

"As soon as they seem to consider it a safe thing to do they unlock their traveling grip and begin to look about. Then I sell them. They bring from four to six bits. 'How long do they live?' Oh, I don't know. I have known them to live three or six months in perfect health, and with every prospect of continuing in that state, when they were brought to an untimely end by being stepped on. If there is one thing above another that a horned toad cannot stand it's being stepped on. It seems to flatten him out, as it were."

"Aren't you becoming very facetious?" asked the reporter.

"Not at all; that is the usual fate of a pet horned toad. You see, they are great travelers and like to keep running about. Nearly everybody who has a horned toad thinks it is so cute to see him try to climb up out of his box, and the first thing you know he has succeeded in getting out of his box and is running about on his own hook."

HOW TO KEEP THEM.

"Can they be tamed? Do they seem to know one human being above another?" were the next questions.

"Those who buy them maintain that they do. Why, I sold one to a lady who lived at the Palace hotel, and she allowed him the freedom of her apartments when she went out, and she told me that on her return he would run to meet her, no matter where he had hidden himself. He was finally stepped on. Another, a dear old lady, said that her grandchildren made fun of her, and declared she thought the horned toad scratched his toes on the floor in response to her chirrup, but she said he really did not go quite so far as that, although he was very knowing.

"What do they live on? Oh, on flies and insects. I have known them, though, to go for a month without eating anything. There is this that must be remembered if you wish to keep your toad alive—give him plenty of sun. The best house for him is a fish globe filled with a deep bed of nice clean sand. Set this in the sun, and throw in some live flies now and then, and Mr. Toad will thrive. If he wants the flies he'll catch them and devour them quicker than a wink. If he doesn't do so you may know it's because he's not hungry.

"And I must not forget either to tell you that while they are perfectly harmless they get themselves into towering rages. It makes them mad to be tickled under the chin. They like to be smoothly stroked down the back. If you poke him on the side he will bend way down as if in response to your touch."—San Francisco Call.

A Brain Disturber.

A Neosha county farmer sent this mixed order to a Chanute merchant: "Send me a sack of flour, five pounds of cofe and one pound of tee. "Natural History."

A class in natural history was called up for recitation. The teacher talked to them a while about the relations of friendship between man and animals, and then asked a girl:

"Do animals really possess the sentiment of affection?"

"Yes, almost always," said the little girl.

"And now," said the teacher, turning to a little boy, "tell me what animal has the greatest natural fondness for man."

"Woman!" said the boy.—Youth's Companion.

You work in all weather. You want an "all-weather" coat. In fact, the best waterproof coat in the world. No frail rubber affair that will rip before the week is out. Rubber coats stove, and lasts but a short time. Four teamsters out of five wear the "Fish Brand" waterproof clothing. They are the only teamsters' waterproof coats that are light, strong, durable, and cheap. They cost very little, and last a long time. They never get sticky or peel off. The buttons are wire-fastened, and never come off. They are absolutely waterproof and wind-proof. Until you own one you will never know the comfort of a rainy day. Beware of worthless imitations, every garment stamped with the "Fish Brand" Trade Mark. Don't accept any inferior coat when you can have the "Fish Brand Slicker" delivered without extra cost. LANDING THE SHORE END.

An Interesting Description of How a Cable Is Secured on Land.

We steamed off and anchored as near in shore as we could get, opposite the place intended for the landing place. All was now activity on board. No sooner were we at anchor than a couple of boats were dispatched for the beach, with a party of men and the necessary tools and implements for use on shore. On board both picking up and paying out gear were being made ready for action, as they both played their part in landing the shore end; huge coils of rope and a number of collapsed air balloons made their appearance from below.

These balloons were inflated with air to their full diameter of three or four feet, and the quarter deck of the Dalmatia began to assume the appearance of a giant's toy shop. Meanwhile the shore party had firmly anchored to the beach two large "spider sheaves," or skeleton iron pulleys. These were placed some two or three hundred yards apart, forming two angles of a parallelogram, of which the bow and stern sheaves of the ship made the other two.

A rope was now carried from the stern of the ship to the shore, and, passing round both spider sheaves, brought back to the ship and taken over the bow sheave to the picking up gear. The cable was made fast to the rope and paid out slowly over the stern, the picking up gear meanwhile heaving in on the other end of the rope, and so hauling the cable gradually ashore. The rope was wound four or five times round the big drum of the picking up gear, steam was turned on, and the drum, rumbling and reverberating, hauled the rope in. Aft the cable was wound four or five times round the paying out drum, also revolved by steam in order to ease the strain, which, with about a mile of rope out between the ship's stern and her bow, is something considerable.

As the cable leaves the stern the raison d'etre of the air balloons becomes apparent. At intervals of about fifteen or sixteen yards one is securely lashed to the cable, and in this way the cable is floated from the ship to the shore, and not dragged along the bottom to run the risk of being damaged by rocks. Another advantage is that, if the cable is sagged by a cross current or tide, it can readily be straightened by stopping the paying out and heaving in at the bows.—Herbert Laws Webb in Scribner's.

Dr. Talmage's First Pair of Boots.

I have seen many days of joy, but I remember no such exhilaration as that which I felt when I mounted my first pair of boots.

To appreciate such an era in life one needs to be brought up in the country. Boys in town come to this crisis before they can appreciate the height and depth of such an acquisition.

I felt that robust schoolboys could no longer strike me across the cheek, and when I turned cry, "What are you looking at?" Nay, the time was past when worse than any possible insult could happen, and that was for anybody to chuck me under the chin and call me "Bub."

I do not think there is any law, human or divine, demanding that a boy should submit to the school bully. I remember with what deep satisfaction, after Jim Johnson had knocked my hat in the mud and spat in my face and tore my new coat, I felt called upon to vindicate the majesty of my new boots. That, however, was before I had any idea of becoming a minister.—Dr. Talmage in New York Journal.

A House in a Bottle.

Some years ago a blind boy residing in Chicago constructed a miniature house inside an ordinary four ounce medicine bottle. The building was made up of forty pieces of wood, all neatly fitted and glued together. It would have puzzled a man with two good eyes to put the pieces in the bottle without the task of putting them together. As wonderful as the above may seem it is only a part of the remarkable achievements of this sightless lad.

After completing the house to his satisfaction he set about fastening the cork in the bottle, but how he accomplished the startling feat has ever remained a mystery. Inside the bottle below the neck a small wooden peg was driven through the cork, which extended far enough on each side of the stopper to prevent it being removed from the bottle. The boy is unable to explain the astonishing piece of ingeniousness.—St. Louis Republic.

Wages of Cincinnati Teachers.

A principal of a district school gets $1,900 salary; an intermediate principal, $2,100; the high school principals, $2,600, and the superintendent, $4,500. There is but one man in the city getting as low as $750. The superintendents of music and drawing get each $2,100, and the principal of the normal $2,000, or $10 per day.

The average daily wages of the teachers is $4.13, or $826 per year. They teach six hours per day, and get from 85 cents an hour up to $2.50. In other words, some of the principals make more money in one hour than many workingmen do in two days.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

A Banyan Grove.

Near Gifford station, on the Staten Island railroad, there is a peculiar piece of woodland, a spot where the roots of the trees all attach themselves to the trunks at from four to six feet above the level of the ground, giving to the stumps an odd, spidery appearance. The soil of the vicinity is very porous, which lends weight to the opinion that the banyan like grove has been formed by the action of frost and water.—St. Paul Republic.

Cleaning Lamps by Machinery.

A machine for rapidly cleaning the gauze of miners' safety lamps has been introduced into the Wombwell collieries at Barnsley. It is driven by a belt and pulley, and the two brushes seen at the end of a shaft have a reciprocating motion. Two other brushes have a circular motion, and are intended to sweep the ends of the gauze and various parts of the lamp.—New York Journal.

A Neat Kick.

"Isn't ice very high just now, Mrs. Codhooker?" inquired the young gentleman boarder anxiously of the landlady at breakfast.

"I should say it was," she gushed. "My ice bills are so frightful I don't know which way to turn to meet them."

"I was going to say," responded the young gentleman boarder hesitatingly, "that these boiled eggs are so cold they would keep most."—New York Tribune.

MAYOR GRANT'S DEMAND.

Working for a New Federal Census of New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Mayor Grant has sent this letter to Secretary Noble asking for a recount, together with all the papers connected with the recent police enumeration:

"John W. Noble, Secretary of the Interior, Washington, D. C.:

"DEAR SIR—Inclosed herewith are copies of the correspondence between the census bureau and myself. In the name of the people of New York I ask you to honor their demand for a recount, and ask that the federal authorities make an accurate enumeration of all of the inhabitants of this city. The census office has in its possession the reports of its accredited representative in the present enumeration of this city.

"Mr. Olcott came to me at the beginning of our enumeration with written credentials from the census bureau which said that he was the credited representative of that bureau.

"All the facilities of the police department and this department were placed at his disposal. All the census books, tally sheets and other papers were given to him as the representative of the federal authorities. He was here constantly during the progress of the enumeration, and I am informed that he made daily reports to the census bureau. This bureau took official cognizance of our enumeration, and it should act upon the information which is already in its possession. Very respectfully, HUGH J. Grant, Mayor."

The following is the letter referred to by the mayor:

"WASHINGTON, Sept. 27, 1890.

"Hon. Hugh J. Grant, Mayor of the city of New York:

"SIR—I beg leave to introduce to you in the person of the bearer, Mr. W. H. Olcott, of this office. Mr. Olcott is visiting New York city for the purpose of personally conferring with you as to the municipal census that you have ordered to be taken, and of informing himself as to the methods that will be pursued in the enumeration in order that this office may be in position to judge how far the results of such census should be considered as verifying or otherwise those of the United States census.

"I beg, therefore, to bespeak for Mr. Olcott such official courtesies as you may see fit to accord him. Yours very respectfully,

"A. P. CHILDS,

"Acting Superintendent of Census."

Philadelphia on the Warpath.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—The mayor has decided to have a police enumeration of the population of Philadelphia. Basing an estimate upon the police department's report concerning the number of houses unoccupied during the summer and allowing for errors on the part of the census enumerators, the mayor believes there is an omission of 100,000 persons from the late count.

DECAPITATED BY D. B. HILL.

The Governor Removes Sheriff Burroughs, of Madison County, for Dishonesty.

ALBANY, Oct. 22.—Governor Hill has removed from office the sheriff of Madison county, Leander W. Burroughs, and appointed in his place William T. Manchester, of Hamilton. Sheriff Burroughs is a Republican, as is also his successor. The removal is based upon charges filed alleging the presentation to the board of supervisors of false, fraudulent and illegal charges against the county of Madison of moneys not disbursed and illegal fees exacted. In his opinion the governor says that he is satisfied that charges in this bill amounting to at least $3,500 are false and fraudulent, and were illegally allowed.

There are charges for services never rendered; for disbursements never made, and for which not even the pretext of a voucher was furnished; different charges for the same services under different devices; board of prisoners charged which was not furnished, and board twice charged that was furnished.

The Return to the Pipe.

A Madison street cigar man is authority for the statement that the better class of smokers is returning to the pipe for comfort. This is not only shown by the demand for such goods, but by the novelties that are being gotten out by French factories as well as those in America.

"There is no use of an American shutting his eyes to it. The French still lead in everything that is novel and artistic, and we follow. Here is a French novelty in the pipe line. It is a leather case. It contains four French sweet briar pipes. You see the variety of stems and mouthpieces. It reminds you maybe of a fine fishing tackle. You can have your stems long or short. You can have them straight or crooked. The artistic smoker doesn't confine himself to one pipe.

"He takes one of these, for instance, and smokes it one evening with a long stem. He takes another the next evening with a short stem, and so on. You will notice, too, that by a curious arrangement these stems are so constructed that it is impossible for the smallest particle of nicotine to reach the lips of the smoker. The outfit I show you costs $36. Then there are others that contain fewer pipes, and some contain but one with different stems."—Chicago Tribune.

A Chemical Lung.

A "chemical lung" is the latest thing proposed for the ventilation of tunnels. It was lately tested in London by fourteen scientists. A room 15 by 18 was kept for an hour at a temperature of 82 degs., and the air was loaded with impurities. The men of science were now called upon to enter, and the air was made still more impure by burning sulphur and carbonic acid gas. Then the "chemical lung," or punkah, so called, measuring 4 by 2.6, was set in motion.

The temperature was soon reduced to 65 degs., and the air freed from all impurities. Then fat was burned, to test the machine for organic substances, and the "lung" was started up just in time to prevent the examining gentlemen from running out for fresh air. It is proposed to use the invention during the construction of the channel tunnel.—Philadelphia Record.

Great Generals and Newspaper Men.

Joe Howard says that Gen. Sherman was largely responsible for the feeling that obtained for a long while in the army against newspaper correspondents. Gen. McClellan always welcomed them. Burnside was as gallant and courtly a man in his tent as in his home in Washington. Meade, although a strict disciplinarian, understood and recognized to the limit the duties of other men under discipline. Grant for a long time was averse to entertaining correspondents, but his rare common sense came to his relief, and under proper, legitimate and absolutely welcome restrictions correspondents found themselves always at home where Grant was in command. Ben Butler was a very prince of hosts.

Expensive Cable Messages.

The present rate for telegraph messages to Australia is about $8 a word. Mr. Heaton thinks that can be reduced to $1 a word. Frequent messages are sent, he says, costing £1,000, and one was sent a short time ago by a Londoner that cost $16,000.—Chicago Times.

New York's Population.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The police have finished their count, which makes the population 1,710,715. The census figures were 1,513,501, which is over 197,000 short of the police count.
